

Eric David English

Eric English is a major with the Richmond, Virginia, Police Department, having served in that agency in numerous roles over the past 20 years. He excels in basic and advanced law enforcement training. As the major responsible for Operations Areas 1 and 2, he oversees administrative and operational functions in four precincts. Previously he headed the Department's Office of Professional Responsibility.

English has a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice and Sociology from the University of Virginia, where he played varsity basketball, and a Master's in Public Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.