

Raymond Guidetti

Lieutenant Raymond Guidetti is a 17 year veteran of the New Jersey State Police and is presently assigned as the Intelligence Manager of New Jersey's Regional Operations and Intelligence Center (ROIC). In September 2010, he began a Fellowship in Washington, DC with the Department of Homeland Security. In 2006, Guidetti received the prestigious Trooper of the Year award.

Guidetti has a Master of Arts in Education from Seton Hall and a Master of Arts in National Security Studies from the United States Naval Postgraduate School. He was intimately involved in instituting intelligence-led policing within the Detective Bureau.