

Frank Vanore

Lt. Frank Vanore is a 20 year veteran of the Philadelphia Police Department and is presently assigned as the Public Information Officer. He is expected to be elevated to the rank of Captain in the near future. Vanore has a solid background in field operations and has served as a shift commander in the patrol district with the highest rate of felony crime. He established himself as a line supervisor who was very adept at handling personnel problems. He is well known for his management of investigative assets tasked with solving violent crime.

Vanore has a Master of Science in Public Safety Management from Saint Joseph's University.

