

Alyssa Work

Alyssa Work participated in the Innovations in Policing Clinic as a second-year student at Yale Law School. While in law school, she also participated in the Criminal Defense Clinic and was an editor on the Yale Law Journal. She is currently a Liman Public Interest Fellow at The Bronx Freedom Fund, a non-profit bail fund in New York, where she works to reduce pretrial detention for individuals charged with low-level offenses. Next year she will clerk for the Honorable Victor Marrero in the Southern District of New York. Alyssa attended Swarthmore College and prior to law school was a legal assistant in an immigration firm in Washington, D.C.
